

Grand Rapids, Wisconsin, Wednesday, Apr. 17th, 1907.

DRUM & SUTOR, Publishers.

WANT COLUMN.

ADVERTISEMENTS will be published in this column at the rate of 1 cent a word, no ad taken for less than 10 cents. If you want to buy, sell or lease anything, try the want column.

FOR SALE—A good house with bath, roomy kitchen and a porch. This house was built four years ago, is well built, well kept and in good condition. For details, call on J. H. Jones.

WANTED—To hire lady bookkeeper and stenographer. Easy work. Address to J. H. Jones.

FOR SALE—A Remington typewriter. Inquire at Tribune office.

CANVASSEER WANTED—Lady or gent. Salary on commission. Address R. L. Jones of Tribune office. A good chance for a hustler. No other need apply.

ROOMS FOR RENT—Either first or second floor, pleasant location, modern furnished or unfurnished, centrally located. Call or address J. H. Jones, Tribune office.

WANTED—Man to take care of horse and buggy and do the chores around any place. Inquire at Tribune office.

REFRIGERATOR FOR SALE—A fine class, good as new refrigerator, 400 lbs. capacity, built in 1905. Will sell these very cheap as I have no use for them. Call or address, Tribune office, Grand Rapids, Wis.

Low Rates To The Pacific Coast

Low-rate Colonist tickets on sale daily until April 30th. Daily and personally conducted tours in through Pullman tourist sleeping cars to San Francisco, Los Angeles and Portland. Very low rates for the round trip will be in effect to San Francisco and Los Angeles April 25th to May 18th, limited to July 31st, and June 8th to 15th, limited to August Pacific Coast points June 20th to July 12th, limited to September 15th. Favorable stop-over arrangements. Apply to any ticket agent of the North-Western Line for full particulars.

Broke an Arm

Robert Peckling of the south side broke an arm on Sunday. He fell from his wagon, which was loaded with a heavy paper roll, and the wheels passed over his arm.

Card of Thanks

We have this method of expressing our thanks to the neighbors and friends who so kindly rendered their assistance during the sickness and after the death of our husband and father.

We wish especially to extend our thanks to the members of the fire department, the Grand Army, and the Woman's Relief Corps.

Roy Kommerer.
Mrs. D. Kammerer.
Kate Kammerer.

Released on Bail

Albert Neufeldt, who has been in jail pending trial on a charge of murdering his brother-in-law, Julius Marth, has been released on $3000 bail. It is possible that the charge may be changed to manslaughter when the case comes up for trial.

NEW COUNCIL MEETS

Mayor Wheelan Announces his Appointments for the Coming Year.

The old city council met on Tuesday evening and closed up the business of the body in a very few minutes and then adjourned. After a recess of about fifteen minutes the new council was called to order, and took their seats. The only changes were A. D. Hill in place of E. C. Korchum in the first ward and E. W. Ellis in place of Will Gross in the third.

Mayor Wheelan announced his appointments for the coming year as follows, the appointments being confirmed by the council:

Appointments.
City Attorney—J. J. Jeffrey
City Clerk—G. E. Boles
Health Commissioner—Dr. F. P. Mainville

Chief of Police—John Garilhee
Day Police—J. D. Gibson
Night Police (East Side)—John Rath
Night Police (West Side)—William Berg

Committees.

On Finance—Alderman Jackson.
Arp and Ristow
General Business—Aldermen Bosser, Gottschalk and Rowson
Streets—Aldermen Rowson, Hanson and Panter
Sewerage—Aldermen Ellis, Rosier, Kubisiek
Sidewalks—Aldermen Gottschalk, Nilsson and Lyons
Waterworks—Aldermen Geo. Hill, A. D. Hill and Steib
Board of Public Works—Steib, Ellis, Gottschalk, Geo. Hill and Mayor Wheelan
City Engineer—E. I. Phillips
Poor Commissioner—Peter McCamley

Supt. Water Works—Fred Pfeiffer
Supt. Fire Engine and Library Bldg.—D. M. Huntington
City Teamster (East Side)—John Henry
City Teamster (West Side)—Mike Storch

Directors for Electric & Water Co.—Aldermen George Hill and Steib

The matter of providing drainage for the west side was taken up. Engineer Phillips has prepared a plan of drainage for this section which will cost about $5,000, and it is the intention to secure the co-operation of the towns that will be benefited and see if something cannot be done to carry out the scheme. A committee was appointed to look into the matter and secure the assistance of the towns in the matter.

The matter of installing a heating plant in the library building was brought up and discussed, but no definite action taken on the matter.

The matter of making the water mains in the city of adequate size in the future was discussed. Heretofore it has been the custom to lay four inch mains in places in outlying districts where there is a small consumption of water, later the city grows in that direction and if there is a demand for fire protection the four inch main will not furnish it. In order to prevent any further mistakes along this line, the city attorney was instructed to draw a resolution which would make it compulsory to lay at least six inch mains in all cases.

The matter of the reservoir at the pumping station being too small to satisfy the needs of the city was brought up by the mayor, and the matter was referred to the superior.

FATALLY INJURED.

Frank Hayes Meets Death Under the Wheels while Switching at Rugby Junction.

Frank Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hayes, of this city, was so badly injured on Thursday last while engaged in performing his duties as brakeman on the Central road near Rugby Junction, that he died within a few hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes received word on Thursday to the effect that Frank had been injured on Thursday by the cars, but the first telegram did not say that the young man was badly hurt and they had no reason to suppose that he had been fatally injured until a couple of hours later when they received a telegram to the effect that he had died.

Mr. Hayes immediately made preparations to go to Fond du Lac, where Frank had been taken after the accident and placed in the hospital, as there was no passenger going south, the best he could do was to take the Northwestern freight that left here Thursday evening, and he did not arrive at Fond du Lac until early next morning. Here it was impossible to find out any of the particulars concerning Frank's accident, as all of the railroad men whom Mr. Hayes was able to see stated that they had not seen the accident, and were unable to give any of the particulars concerning the matter, and up to the present time it has been impossible to obtain any of the actual occurrences that led to the young man's death.

Frank was employed as brakeman on the Central, where he had been for a couple of months past, and was running from Fond du Lac south with Mr. Hayes returned here with the body on Friday afternoon over the Central and the funeral was held on Saturday forenoon.

The deceased was twenty-two years of age and had been married in this city, where he had a host of friends who mourn his young man of good habits and was well liked by all who knew him. His parents certainly had the sincerest sympathy of all in their sad affliction.

Regarding the manner in which Frank Hayes met his death, one of the railroad men who had taken the trouble to look the matter up, stated that he had gone between the engine and first car to cut off the engine, and while there the other brakeman had given the engineer the signal to back up. The engineer obeyed the signal, either forgetting or not knowing that Frank was between the cars, the result being that he was thrown between the rails and run over.

Death of an Old Resident.

James McGuire, one of the old residents of this city, died on Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James McCarthy at the age of eighty-two years.

Deceased had been a resident of this city during the past forty years, and in the good old days when lumber was king, he was engaged in running the Wisconsin river, in which capacity he became well known to those along the river. For a number of years past Mr. McGuire has lived with his daughters in this city, but had enjoyed fairly good health until his last illness.

Mr. McGuire is survived by four sons and four daughters, the sons being Adam, Patrick, Edward and Michael, all of whom are residents of Montana. The daughters are Mrs. Phil Ward, Mrs. Owen Love and Mrs. James McCarthy of this city, and Miss Ellen McGuire, who resides in Montana.

The funeral occurred this morning from St. Peter and Paul Catholic church, Rev. B. Hogenroth officiating.

Witte-Schroeder.

Miss Anna Witte and William Schroeder were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents on the west side on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. C. A. Mellicke officiating. They were accompanied by Miss Laura Witte and Irving Henry. A wedding supper was served about nine o'clock after which Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder left for their new home on the east side.

Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder are both well and favorably known in this city. Mrs. Schroeder being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Witte, and Mr. Schroeder the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schroeder, and have always made this city their home, where they have a host of friends who will join with the Tribune in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

Podawiltz-Kaiser

Miss Stella Podawiltz of this city and Jos. Kaiser of Minneapolis were united in marriage at that place on Saturday, April 14th. They were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Ella Podawiltz of this city and Geo. Golden. Mr. and Mrs. Kaiser will make their home in Minneapolis, where Mr. Kaiser is employed. Mrs. Kaiser is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Podawiltz of this city where she has many friends, who will extend the heartiest congratulations.

Waters-O'Brien

Miss Katherine Waters, who formerly lived in this city, and D. M. O'Brien of Tomah, were married at Pawtucket, N. J., on Wednesday last. They will make their home at Tomah. Mrs. O'Brien is well known in this city, having resided here many years, and has a host of friends who wish her happiness on her journey thru life.

Have Decided on Plans.

The committee appointed to investigate the Manual Training school matter have recommended the plans submitted by Chandler & Park, the well known firm of architects. The new school will be substantially along the same lines as the one at Menomonie, Wis., only not quite so large.

Amos Hasbrouck departed on Tuesday for Indian Territory to spend a week looking over his interests in the oil region.

OFFICE ROOMS TO RENT—Inquire Dr. Chas. Fomastelle.

FATALLY INJURED.

Frank Hayes Meets Death Under the Wheels while Switching at Rugby Junction.

Frank Hayes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hayes, of this city, was so badly injured on Thursday last while engaged in performing his duties as brakeman on the Central road near Rugby Junction, that he died within a few hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes received word on Thursday to the effect that Frank had been injured on Thursday by the cars, but the first telegram did not say that the young man was badly hurt and they had no reason to suppose that he had been fatally injured until a couple of hours later when they received a telegram to the effect that he had died.

Mr. Hayes immediately made preparations to go to Fond du Lac, where Frank had been taken after the accident and placed in the hospital, as there was no passenger going south, the best he could do was to take the Northwestern freight that left here Thursday evening, and he did not arrive at Fond du Lac until early next morning. Here it was impossible to find out any of the particulars concerning Frank's accident, as all of the railroad men whom Mr. Hayes was able to see stated that they had not seen the accident, and were unable to give any of the particulars concerning the matter, and up to the present time it has been impossible to obtain any of the actual occurrences that led to the young man's death.

Frank was employed as brakeman on the Central, where he had been for a couple of months past, and was running from Fond du Lac south with Mr. Hayes returned here with the body on Friday afternoon over the Central and the funeral was held on Saturday forenoon.

The deceased was twenty-two years of age and had been married in this city, where he had a host of friends who mourn his young man of good habits and was well liked by all who knew him. His parents certainly had the sincerest sympathy of all in their sad affliction.

Regarding the manner in which Frank Hayes met his death, one of the railroad men who had taken the trouble to look the matter up, stated that he had gone between the engine and first car to cut off the engine, and while there the other brakeman had given the engineer the signal to back up. The engineer obeyed the signal, either forgetting or not knowing that Frank was between the cars, the result being that he was thrown between the rails and run over.

Case Was Adjudged.

M. L. Ohlmstedt was before Justice Brown on Friday on a charge of stealing a quantity of cigars from O'Connell and Standaal Co. at Pittsville on Feb. 28th. But the case was adjourned. Ohlmstedt was already in jail for stealing, and was re-arrested while out on bail.

The charge in the last case against him is that he, in company with a companion, broke into O'Connell and Standaal's place in Pittsville and stole 18,000 cigars which were shipped to Minneapolis, and later claimed by Ohlmstedt and his companion. The cigars were sold to a dealer in Minneapolis, but the officers got onto the trail of the stolen goods and a part of them were subsequently recovered and returned to the owners. The officers seem to be certain that they are after the right man, but it is his intention to fight the case.

Died of Consumption.

Mrs. Louis Wiphi died on Friday at her home in Nikosia of consumption. Deceased was taken ill last fall, and it is thought, contracted her dreaded disease while nursing her sister, Mrs. Louis Schuch, who passed away last fall. A husband and five small children are left to mourn a kind and loving mother. The funeral occurred on Monday from the Catholic church at Nikosia. A number of friends and relatives from here attended the funeral.

Mission at Catholic Church.

Rev. John Sprigg and Rev. Theo. Dore Hogenroth of the Prairie du Chien order of Jesuit Fathers are holding a mission at St. Peter and Paul Catholic church this week, having started same last Sunday and will close next Sunday evening.

Still Looking For a Site.

The city of Grand Rapids is still in the market for a site for a park. At the meeting of the council last week the matter was discussed and it was pretty unanimously decided that the site recently bargained for up the river was too far from the heart of the city and was so much off from the main traveled roads that it would be of little value for this purpose at the present time, although it might be of use for this purpose later on or for other purposes at an early date.

Express Office Will Move

The United States Express company has leased the Wm. Scott building next to Taylor and Scott's office, and expect to move their headquarters to that place as soon as it is put into shape for occupancy. The room now occupied by the express company will be taken by Guy Getts who will fix it up for an ice cream parlor.

Chandos-Smart.

Miss Bertha Chandos and E. H. Smart were married on Tuesday morning at the Catholic parsonage, Rev. B. Hogenroth officiating. They were accompanied by Donald Smart and Miss Peter Chandos as bridesmaids and bridesmaid. Mr. and Mrs. Smart left on the noon train for Chicago and Milwaukee on a short wedding tour, and upon their return here will go to homekeeping in rooms in the Colon block.

Both of the young people are well and favorably known in this city, having been reared here and graduated from our high school. Mrs. Smart is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Smart and is an industrious and reliable young man, being the manager of the local telephone exchange, while the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Chandos and a most estimable young lady.

The Tribune unites with their many friends in extending the heartiest of congratulations and wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

Made a Short Stay.

The Thomas Overall company, which has been operating in this city for a couple of months past, have decided to move, and with this end in view have been looking for a location in Fond du Lac. They give as the reason for their change the fact that they cannot secure sufficient help here, which they hope to do where else.

The girls who have been employed at the factory claim that the reason they cannot be secured is because the wages are so low. The rate paid is thirty cents per dozen garments, and it takes a worker to produce anything like a wage at this rate, many going to work and then leaving at the end of a week or two, being convinced that they could not make a living.

Big Doings at Stevens Point.

The Stevens Point Council No. 20 of the Knights of Columbus will confer the First Second and Third Degrees at Stevens Point next Sunday April 21st.

The Fond du Lac team will confer the First and Second Degrees, while the Green Bay team, headed by E. Martin, will have charge of the Third Degree. A large number of the members from Wausau, Merrill, Antigo, Green Bay, Fond du Lac and other places will be present, the doings to wind up with a grand banquet.

Handcuffed Man Escapes.

Marshall, Wis., April 16. Under Sheriff Hogenroth's looking was in Marshall this morning a handcuffed prisoner who got away from him while he slept.

Hogenroth arrested his man at Neillsville the night previous and intended to complete the rest of his journey to Appleton over the Wisconsin Central.

When the train pulled in at this station Hogenroth was fast asleep. The stationer with the other passengers got off. When the train pulled out the sleeping officer still occupied his seat in the car and was not awakened until the train stopped at St. Francis, twenty miles beyond here. He then got a team and drove back, out the prisoner, Gottlieb Koppin, who is wanted for deserting his family, had made his escape.

C. G. F. Give Banquet at Marshall.

A banquet was held at Marshall on Monday evening by the St. John's Court of the Catholic Order of Foresters, in honor of the High Court and State Officers.

A musical program was rendered after which short speeches were delivered by Chief Ranger, H. O. Cannon and High Trustee, James Lynch of Chicago, John Knapp, State Chief Ranger of Delora, Mr. Glennon and J. W. Dungan of Stevens Point and J. L. A. Bauman and J. R. Rogan of this city.

An elaborate supper was served by the Lady Foresters, covers being laid for two hundred people.

Those present from this city were: L. A. Bauman, J. R. Rogan, Matt Carey and Dr. Frank Pommerville. There were also delegates from Stevens Point, Wausau, Colby and Neillsville. A very good time was reported by those present from this city. The C. G. F. Lodge of this city expect to have their initiation about the first part of May, it is also expected that the State team and State officers will be present on that occasion.

Travel Class Entertain.

The members of the Travel Class entertained their friends at the home of Mrs. Bertha Chandos on Thursday evening, and a very pleasant time was the result. The Travel class is distinctly a ladies club, and it is only occasionally that they open their hearts enough to invite the gentlemen. The evening was spent in playing bridge whist and some of those present proved themselves as expert in handling the pastebord as that they were awarded prizes. The experts were Mrs. E. W. Ellis and Geo. P. Hambrecht, while Mrs. G. W. Meade received the consolation gift.

Express Office Will Move

The United States Express company has leased the Wm. Scott building next to Taylor and Scott's office, and expect to move their headquarters to that place as soon as it is put into shape for occupancy. The room now occupied by the express company will be taken by Guy Getts who will fix it up for an ice cream parlor.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING.

An Effort Will be Made to Organize a Branch in this City.

A number of the people of this city have been interested in a Young Men's Christian Association, have met for some time past, and the demand for a branch of the organization has become so strong that it is proposed to hold a meeting for the purpose of seeing what can be done along this line and what can be done by men and others who will want the support of such an institution.

F. P. Anderson of Milwaukee, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A. and J. P. Campbell, secretary of the organization at Wausau will be in the city the latter part of the week and it is the intention to hold a meeting at the Methodist church on Saturday evening. There will also be a men's mass meeting on Sunday afternoon at the opera house and a general meeting at the opera house on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of getting the expression of the people along this line. There will be special music at all of these meetings.

Those who have the matter in charge feel that there is no use in organizing unless enough people come to the front to make it a success from the start, as they feel that it would be better to delay the organization for some time than to start it and then have it a failure. All interested in the matter are requested to be present at the meetings as the organization will depend on the amount of interest that is taken in the matter.

Library Reception.

There will be a public reception at the library, Monday evening April 22 under the auspices of the Federation of Women's Clubs. The object is to promote a greater interest in the library and its circulation.

Miss Stearns of the State Free Library Commission will give an address on "The Library as a Social Center" illustrated with lantern slides of the exterior and interior views of the libraries.

There will also be short addresses by Rev. S. M. Van der Kolk and others. Miss Rablin will explain the card system of catalogue to all who are interested.

You and your friends are cordially invited to attend. Come and show your interest in the library and its work.

An offering will be received which will be used in fitting up the children's room.

Library Committee.Surprise Old People.

A large number of friends, consisting of neighbors and members of the Relief Corps and G. A. R. Post gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Parker last Thursday evening to hold Mr. Parker celebrate his 80th birthday. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games and singing old time songs, after which an elaborate supper was served. There were 42 old folks present and all report having spent a very pleasant evening.

Lon J. Beauchamp Coming.

He will fill his engagement on the Popular Lecture and Entertainment Course, Tuesday, April 23. He is "A Thinker Who Makes You Laugh, A Humorist Who Makes You Think." Remember the date, and get your reserved seats at 10 o'clock. This is the last and it is expected that it will be the best of the whole course.

MARRIAGE LICENSSES.

Steve Kuchinski of the town of Seneca and Miss Vera Kuchinska of this city.

August Durso and Miss Bertha Neubauer of both the city of Marshall.

School Officers Elected.

At a meeting of the school commissioners held on Saturday evening the following officers were elected: Dr. Frank Pommerville, president; W. H. Rogers, treasurer; H. S. Youker, Superintendent.

Realty Items!

69 acre farm, 90 acre farm and 290 acre farm in exchange for city property. All good farms at more than 4 miles from town.

300 acres cut over and 1000 acres from Grand Rapids. Over 1000 worth standing timber. Small house. Price $3000. A bargain. Write your friends if you are in the market.

$350 cash is enough to buy a new 6 room house on west side as owner will allow you time on other $300. Or your $300 will entirely pay for a new small house on east side. Will it pay you to keep on renting?

We have listed some more good houses this week. See what we have before buying. You can buy just as cheap of us as of the owners direct. We may have just what you want.

CANADA—Her lands are the richest; her yields the greatest; her opportunities the best for homebuilders and investors. Excursions every two weeks. Low rates. Pure milk for purchasers. Price $6 to $25 an acre. Circulars and particulars at our office.

Wis. Insurance & Realty Co.

Phone 261 J. A. Lindgren, Mgr.

Lace Curtain Sale!

AT HEINEMAN'S BEGINNING
Saturday, April 20th to 27th

THE season for house cleaning is here and many good house-keepers will be looking for something new and pretty to freshen up their rooms. We have just received a nice line of Nottingham, Swiss and Net Curtains in White, Ecru and Cream. Below will be found a few descriptions and prices of goods.

Swiss curtains with hemstitched ruffles, worth $1.50 per pair, sale price.....	98c
Plain Swiss curtains, trimmed with fluted edges, former price $1.50 per pair, sale price.....	98c
We bought a large number of white Nottingham curtains in a great variety of styles or patterns, all full width, 8 1/2 yards long. These goods formerly sold from $2.00 to $2.50 per pair, sale price.....	$1.39
Green Net curtains, lace trimmed, worth $3.25 per pair, sale price.....	$2.79
Ecru Nottingham curtains, elegant goods, worth and ordinarily sold for $4.50 to $4.75 per pair, marked down for this special sale per pair.....	$3.19
Ecru Net curtains, trimmed with fluted lace and insertion. Regular price $5.50, sale price a bargain, per pair.....	$3.98

Also many other styles and prices too numerous to quote; all cut for special sale at least 15 per cent.

Goods will be on display Saturday morning, April 20th. Come in and see the display. We will make it worth your while.

Heineman Merc. Co.
GRAND RAPIDS WISCONSIN

PALMER GARMENTS

For the Young Folks...

Our spring display of young ladies' coats and suits is exceptionally large and well chosen. We made special efforts along this line, and in choosing Palmer Garments we were prompted by consideration of quality and fitness. We believe that "satisfaction in wear" is what our customers desire and therefore we can say that we "ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEE" fit, workmanship and materials in every garment we sell, and money paid will be cheerfully refunded in every case where garments fail to give satisfaction.

It will be utterly impossible for us to demonstrate the superior quality of "Palmer Garments" unless you give us the opportunity. This is all we ask, we leave the verdict with you.

Queen Quality Footwear.

The new models again emphasize the fact that "Queen Quality" shoes are in a class by themselves. They exemplify anew the originality and refinement of style, the exceptional fitting and comfort giving qualities and the moderate price for which the Queen Quality shoe has long been famous, and which for years have maintained its sales far and away in excess of all other women's shoes in the world. "Queen Quality" shoes include all kinds, shapes and leathers, from which all feet and fancies may be accurately fitted.

QUEEN QUALITY SHOES, $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00.

JOHNSON & HILL COMPANY

Grand Rapids, Wisconsin, Wednesday, Apr. 17th, 1907.

DRUM & SUTOR, Publishers.

With this you an Abstract of Title to any Real Estate in Wood County. Will buy or sell your farm or city property. Loans money in any amount on real estate in Wood County. Improved and wild lands for sale. Mortgages and Deeds carefully drawn. Will write your Fire Insurance in some of the best companies in the business.

Not only advertise to sell your property but I do sell. I have several bargains in city property and small places close to the city.

C. E. BOLES
Office in Lyon Block
Grand Rapids Wis
Phone 322

It is a well known fact that Pure Food is the only
BRAYSTED & FOLEY
AT THE STAR FOR MONADROCK RYE.

COAL AND Wood
SEE F. KELLNER For the Best
TELEPHONE 530

Seiwert, Warner & Son,
Pure Food
Market..

Fresh Salt and Smoked
Meats Fish and Game
in season. Pure Lard

Try our Home-made Sausages, The Finest in the Land
TELEPHONE 31

CITY
MEAT MARKET!
Fresh, Salt and Smoked
MEATS.

All kinds of Fish, Poultry and Sausages. Cash paid for Hides and Pelts. Prompt delivery of orders, wholesale and retail.

N. REILAND,
181-275 EAST SIDE
GRAND RAPIDS, WIS.

Every woman appreciates a beautiful tailor-made suit so much desired by her. Such a complex one to fit
her. Use Hildner's Rocky Mountain
Pat. Suits. Tailor Makers John
H. Hill & Co.

Dressed
Young Men

er clothes in any hap-hazzard ally use the best possible disor coat buying, relying upon clothes have gained in general less than a half dozen makes of es that can be thoroughly relied upon are more trustworthy than rat made Rochester Famous.

the test for many seasons and not wanting. If you are contem-ase of a suit or coat this spring, unity to srow you the different any we will gladly do so whether phase or not.

Coats $10 to $25

COMPANY

WANT COLUMN.

ADVERTISEMENTS will be published in this column at the rate of 10 cents per line per day. For less than 10 cents, try the want column.

FOR SALE: A fine lot of land with a small house, situated in the city. Price $1000.00. For particulars, apply to the owner.

WANTED: To hire a few men for a short time. Apply to the office.

CONTRACTOR: I have a contract for the construction of a building. For details, see the office.

ROOMS: For rent, a few rooms in a nice house. Price $5.00 per month. For particulars, apply to the owner.

WANTED: To hire a few men for a short time. Apply to the office.

CONTRACTOR: I have a contract for the construction of a building. For details, see the office.

ROOMS: For rent, a few rooms in a nice house. Price $5.00 per month. For particulars, apply to the owner.

Low Rates To The Pacific Coast

Low rate Colonists' tickets on sale daily until April 30th. Daily and personally conducted tours in through Pullman tourist sleeping cars to San Francisco, Los Angeles and Portland. Very low rates for the round trip will be in effect to San Francisco and Los Angeles April 26th to May 18th. Limited to July 1st, and June 8th to 15th limited to August 1st, also to Portland and North Pacific Coast points June 20th to July 12th, limited to September 15th. Favorable stop-over arrangements. Apply to any ticket agent of the North Western Line for full particulars.

Card of Thanks

We have this method of expressing our thanks to the neighbors and friends who so kindly rendered their assistance during the sickness and after the death of our husband and father.

We wish especially to extend our thanks to the members of the Brod department, the Grand Army, and the Woman's Relief Corps.

Roy Kammerer
Mrs D Kammerer
Kate Kammerer

NEW COUNCIL MEETS

Mayor Wheelan announces his appointments for the coming year.

The old city council met on Tuesday evening and closed up the business of the body in a very few minutes and then adjourned. After a recess of about fifteen minutes the new council was called to order, and took their seats. The only changes were A D Hill in place of L O Ketchum in the first ward and E W Ellis in place of Will Gross in the third.

Mayor Wheelan announced his appointments for the coming year as follows: the appointments being confirmed by the council.

Appointments:
City Attorney—J J Toffrey
City Clerk—C D Boles
Health Commissioner—Dr J P Montville
Chief of Police—John Garishe
Day Police—J D Gibson
Night Police (East Side)—John Rath
Night Police (West Side)—William Beig

Committees:
On Finance—Aldermen Jackson Argin and Ristow
General Business—Aldermen Ross and Gotschall
Streets—Aldermen Rowson Han and Foster
Sewerage—Aldermen Ellis Ross and Kabisink
Sidewalks—Aldermen Gotschall, Nelson and Lyons
Waterworks—Aldermen Geo Hill, A D Hill and Stahl
Board of Public Works—Stebbins, Gotschall, Geo Hill and Mayor Wheelan
City Engineer—E I Philbin
Poor Commissioner—Peter McCann

Supt Water Works—Fred Pfeiffer
Supt Fire Engine and Library Bldg—D M Hentington
City Treasurer (East Side)—John Henry
City Treasurer (West Side)—Mike Bierck

Directors for Electric & Water Co.—Aldermen George Hill and Stahl
The matter of providing drainage for the west side was taken up. Engineer Philbin has prepared a plan of drainage for this section which will cost about $8,000. and it is the intention to secure the co-operation of the towns that will be benefited and see if something cannot be done to carry out the scheme. A committee was appointed to look into the matter and secure the assistance of the towns in the matter.

The matter of installing a heating plant in the library building was brought up and discussed, but no definite action taken on the matter.

The matter of making the water mains in the city of adequate size in the future was discussed. Heretofore it has been the custom to lay four inch mains in places in outlying districts where there is a small consumption of water, later the city grows in that direction and if there is a demand for fire protection the four inch main will not furnish it. In order to prevent any further mistakes along this line the city attorney was instructed to draw a resolution which would make it compulsory to lay at least six inch mains in all cases.

The matter of the reservoir at the pumping station being too small to satisfy the needs of the city was brought up by the mayor, and the matter was referred to the superior.

FATALITY INJURED.

Frank Hayes Meets Death Under the Wheels while Switching at Rugby Junction.

Frank Hayes son of Mr and Mrs J D Hayes of this city was so badly injured on Thursday last while engaged in performing his duties as brakeman on the Central road near Rugby Junction that he died within a few hours.

Mr and Mrs Hayes received word on Thursday, the day that Frank had been injured on Thursday by the train, that the telegram did not come, but the young man was badly hurt and they had no reason to suppose that he had been fatally injured until a couple of hours later when they received a telegram to the effect that he had died.

Mr Hayes immediately made preparations to go to Fond du Lac, where Frank had been taken after the accident and placed in the hospital, but as there was not a passenger going south the best he could do was to take the morning freight that left for Fond du Lac on Thursday evening, and he did not arrive at Fond du Lac until early next morning. Here it was impossible to find out any of the particulars concerning Frank's accident as all of the railroad men whom Mr Hayes was able to see stated that they had not seen the accident and were unable to give any of the particulars concerning the matter, and up to the present time it has been impossible to obtain any of the actual occurrences that led to the young man's death.

Frank was employed as brakeman on the Central where he had been for a couple of months past, and was running from Fond du Lac south.

Mr Hayes returned home with the body on Friday afternoon over the Central and the funeral was held on Saturday forenoon.

The deceased was twenty-two years of age and had been reared in this city where he had a host of friends who mourn his untimely death. He was a bright young man of good habits and was well liked by all who knew him. His parents certainly have the sincerest sympathy of all in this and affliction.

Regarding the manner in which Frank Hayes met his death one of the railroad men who had taken the trouble to look the matter up stated that he had gone between the engine and first car to cut off the engine, and while there the other brakeman had given the engineer the signal to back up. The engineer obeyed the signal, either forgetting or not knowing that Frank was between the cars, the result being that he was thrown between the rails and run over.

Chandos-Smart

Miss Ethel Chandos and E B Smart were married on Tuesday morning at the Catholic parsonage. Rev B Hagenroth officiating. They were accompanied by Donald Smart and Miss Fern Chandos as bridesmaids and held up by Mr and Mrs Smart. The ceremony took place in the morning and the wedding party returned home in the afternoon.

Both of the young people are well and favorably known in this city having been reared here and graduated from our high school. Mr Smart is the son of Mr and Mrs B H Smart and is an industrious and reliable young man, being the manager of the local telephone exchange while the bride is the daughter of Mr and Mrs B G Chandos and a most estimable young lady.

The young man's friends in this city are many friends in extending the hearty expressions of congratulations and wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

Y. M. C. A. MEETING.

An Effort Will be Made to Organize a Branch in this City.

A number of the people of this city have been interested in a Young Men's Christian Association movement and the demand for a branch of the organization has become so strong that it is proposed to hold a meeting for the purpose of seeing what can be done along this line and what our business men and others will do to ward the support of such an institution.

J J Anderson of Milwaukee, state secretary of the Y M C A and J P Campbell, secretary of the organization at Wausau will be the guests of the Y M C A and it is the intention to hold a meeting at the Methodist church on Saturday evening. There will also be a men's mass meeting on Sunday afternoon at the opera house and a general meeting at the opera house on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of getting the expression of the people along this line. There will be special music at all of these meetings.

Those who have the matter in charge feel that there is no use in organizing unless enough people come to the front to make it a success from the start, as they feel that it would be better to delay the organization for some time than to start it and then have it a failure. All interested in the matter are requested to be present at the meetings as the organization will depend on the amount of interest that is taken in the matter.

Library Reception.

There will be a public reception at the library, Monday evening April 22, under the auspices of the Federation of Women's Clubs. The object is to promote a greater interest in the library and its circulation.

Miss Starnes of the State Free Library Commission will give an address on "The Library Beautiful," illustrated with lantern slides and showing exterior and interior views of fine libraries.

There will also be short addresses by Mrs. Starnes, Mr. Youker and others. Miss Stahl will explain the card system of cataloging to all who are interested.

You and your friends are cordially invited to attend. Come and show your interest in the library and its work.

An offering will be received which will be used in fitting up the children's room.

Library Committee

Lace Curtain Sale!
AT HEINEMAN'S BEGINNING
Saturday, April 20th to 27th

THE season for house cleaning is here and many good house-keepers will be looking for something new and pretty to freshen up their rooms. We have just received a nice line of Nottingham, Swiss and Net Curtains in White, Ecru and Cream. Below will be found a few descriptions and prices of goods.

Large Nottingham curtains, elegant goods worth $2.00 to $3.50 per pair, marked down for this special sale, per pair $1.39

Large Swiss curtains, trimmed with Hattenburg edge, former price $1.50 per pair, sale price $1.39

Large Net curtains, trimmed with Hattenburg edge, former price $1.50 per pair, sale price $1.39

Large Nottingham curtains, elegant goods worth $2.00 to $3.50 per pair, marked down for this special sale, per pair $1.39

Large Swiss curtains, trimmed with Hattenburg edge, former price $1.50 per pair, sale price $1.39

Large Net curtains, trimmed with Hattenburg edge, former price $1.50 per pair, sale price $1.39

Goods will be on display Saturday morning, April 20th. Come in and see the display. We will make it worth your while.

Heineman Merc. Co.
GRAND RAPIDS WISCONSIN

PALMER GARMENTS
For the Young Folks...

Our spring display of young ladies' coats and suits is exceptionally large and well chosen. We made special efforts along this line, and in choosing Palmer Garments we were prompted by consideration of quality and fitness. We believe that "satisfaction in wear" is what our customers desire and therefore we can say that we "ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEE" fit, workmanship and materials in every garment we sell, and money paid will be cheerfully refunded in every case where garments fail to give satisfaction.

It will be utterly impossible for us to demonstrate the superior quality of "Palmer Garments" unless you give us the opportunity. This is all we ask, we leave the verdict with you.

Queen Quality Footwear.

The new models again emphasize the fact that "Queen Quality" shoes are in a class by themselves. They exemplify anew the originality and refinement of style, the exceptional fitting and comfort giving qualities and the moderate price for which the Queen Quality shoe has long been famous, and which for years have maintained its sales far and away in excess of all other women's shoes in the world. "Queen Quality" shoes include all kinds, shapes and leathers, from which all feet and fancies may be accurately fitted.

QUEEN QUALITY SHOES, $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00.

JOHNSON & HILL COMPANY

Death of an Old Resident

James McGuire, one of the old residents of this city, died on Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James McCarthy at the age of eighty-two years.

Deceased had been a resident of this city during the past forty years, and in the good old days when law was king he was engaged in running the Wisconsin river in which capacity he became well known to those along the river. For a number of years past Mr McGuire has lived with his daughters in this city, but had enjoyed fairly good health until his last illness.

Mr McGuire is survived by four sons and four daughters. The sons being Adam, Patrick, Edward and Michael, all of whom are residents of Montana. The daughters are Mrs. Phil Ward, Mrs. Owen Love and Mrs. James McCarthy of this city, and Miss Ellen McGuire, who resides in Montana.

The funeral occurred this morning from St. Peter and Paul Catholic church, Rev B Hagenroth officiating.

Witte-Schroeder.

Miss Anna Witte and William Schroeder were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents on the west side on Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev C A Mellick officiating. They were accompanied by Miss Intra Witte and Irving Henry. A wedding supper was served about nine o'clock after which Mr and Mrs Schroeder left for their new home on the east side.

Mr and Mrs Schroeder are both well and favorably known in this city. Mrs Schroeder being the daughter of Mr and Mrs Wm Witte, and Mr Schroeder the son of Mr and Mrs Louis Schroeder, and have always made this city their home, where they have a host of friends who will join with the Tribune in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

Podawiltz-Kaiser

Miss Stella Podawiltz of this city and Joe Kaiser of Minneapolis were united in marriage at that place on Saturday, April 13th. They were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Ella Podawiltz of this city and Geo. Golden. Mr and Mrs Kaiser will make their home in Minneapolis where Mr Kaiser is employed. Joe Kaiser is a daughter of Mr and Mrs. Albert Podawiltz of this city where she has many friends who will extend the heartiest congratulations.

Waters-O'Brien

Miss Katherine Waters, who formerly lived in this city, and D M O'Brien of Tomah, were married at Powsuctet, R I., on Wednesday last. They will make their home at Tomah. Mr O'Brien is well known in this city, having resided here many years, and has a host of friends who wish her happiness on her journey thru life.

Have Decided on Plans.

The committee appointed to investigate the Manual Training school matter have recommended the plans submitted by Chandler & Park, the well known firm of architects. The new school will be substantially along the same line as the one at Menomonie, Wis., only not quite so large.

Amos Hasbrouck departed on Tuesday for Indian Territory to spend a week looking over his interests in the oil region.

Still Looking For a Site.

The city of Grand Rapids is still in the market for a site for a park at the meeting of the council last week the matter was discussed and it was pretty unanimously decided that the site recently bargained for up the river was too far from the heart of the city and was so much off from the main traveled roads that it would be of little value for this purpose at the present time, also it might be of use for this purpose later on or for other purposes at an early date. Several of the city fathers were of the opinion that if a park is laid out it should be along the way of the proposed railroad line which would make it readily accessible to the people of the city. The committee on the matter were instructed to look up other sites and make a report at a later meeting of the council.

Case Was Adjourned

M L Ohlstedt was before Justice Brown on Friday on a charge of stealing a quantity of cigars from Ottolia and Standahl Co at Pittsville on Feb 6th but the case was adjourned. Ohlstedt was already under arrest for stealing, and was arrested while on his bail.

The charge in the last case against him is that he is in company with a companion, broke into Ottolia and Standahl's place in Pittsville and stole 18000 cigars which were shipped to Minneapolis, and later claimed by Ohlstedt and his companion. The cigars were sold to a dealer in Minneapolis, but the officers got onto the trail of the stolen goods and a part of them were subsequently recovered and returned to the owners. The officers seem to be certain that they are after the right man when they arrested Ohlstedt, but it is his intention to fight the case.

Died of Consumption

Mrs Louis Wipf died on Friday at her home in Nekosco of consumption. Deceased was taken ill last fall, and it is thought, contracted the dreaded disease while nursing her sister Mrs Louis Schuch, who passed away last fall. A husband and five small children are left to mourn a kind and loving mother. The funeral occurred on Monday from the Catholic church at Nekosco. A number of friends and relatives from here attended the funeral.

Mission At Catholic Church

Rev John Sprig and Rev Theodore Hageman of the Prairie du Chien order of Jesuit Fathers are holding a mission at St. Peter and Paul Catholic church this week, having started same last Sunday and will close next Sunday evening.

Rev Feldman of Nekosco and Rev Donaback of Hewitt will also be in the city tomorrow.

Express Office Will Move

The United States Express company has leased the Wm Scott building next to Taylor and Scott's office, and expect to move their headquarters to that place as soon as it is put into shape for occupancy. The room now occupied by the express company will be taken by Gey Guts who will fix it up for an ice cream parlor.

Travel Class Entertain

The members of the Travel Class entertained their friends at the home of Mrs. Beulah Eiron on Thursday evening, and a very pleasant time was the result. The Travel class is a distinctly ladies club, and it is only occasionally that they open their hearts enough to invite the gentleman. The evening was spent in playing bridge whist and some of those present proved themselves as expert in handling the pastboards that they were awarded prizes. The experts were Mrs. E W. Ellis and Geo P. Hambricht, while Mrs O W. Menado received the consolation gift.

Handcuffed Man Escapes

Marshall, Wis., April 16.—Elder Sheriff Henson of Appleton was in Marshall this morning looking for a handcuffed prisoner who got away from him while he slept.

Henson had arrested his man at Neillville the night previous and taking the midnight train to this city intended to complete the rest of his journey to Appleton over the Wisconsin Central.

When the train pulled in at this station Henson was fast asleep. The prisoner with the other passengers got off. When the train pulled out the sleeping officer still occupied his seat in the car and was not awakened until the train stopped at St. Francis, twenty miles beyond here. He then got a ticket and drove back, out the prisoner, Gottlieb Koppala, who is wanted for deserting his family, had made his escape.

C. O. F. Give Banquet at Marshall.

A banquet was held at Marshall on Monday evening by the St. John's Court of the Odd Fellows Order of Foresters, in honor of the High Court and State Officers.

A musical program was rendered after which short speeches were delivered by Chief Ranger, H O Cannon and High Trustee James Lynch of Chicago John Knyers, State Chief Ranger of DePere, Mr. Glendon and J W Dugan of Stevens Point, and Atty L A Bauman and J R Ragan of this city.

An elaborate supper was served by the Lady Foresters, covers being laid for two hundred people.

Those present from this city were: L A Bauman, J R Ragan, Matt Carey and Dr. Frank Pommerville. There were also delegates from Stevens Point, Wausau, Oshkosh and Neillville. A very good time was reported by those present from this city. The O O F Lodge of this city expect to have their initiation about the first part of May there being about 30 in the class. It is also expected that the State team and State officers will be present on that occasion.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Steve Reulack of the town of Seneca and Miss Verna Kiedroska of this city.

August Boras and Miss Bertha Neuhauer of both the city of Marshall.

School Officers Elected.

At a meeting of the school commissioners held on Saturday evening the following officers were elected: Dr. Frank Pommerville, president. H H Reeves, Treasurer. W H Youker, Superintendent.

Realty Items!

60 acre farm, 60 acre farm and 200 acre farm for exchange for city property. All good farms at more than 4 miles from town.

300 acres cut over and 600 acres from Grand Rapids over 1000 worth standing timber. Small house. Price $3000. A bargain. Write your friends if you are in the market.

$500 cash is enough to buy a new six room house on west side as owner will allow you time on other $500. Or your $500 will entirely pay for a new small house on east side. Will it pay you to keep on renting?

We have listed some more good houses this week. See what we have before buying. You can buy just as cheap as us as the owners direct. We may have just what you want.

Express Office Will Move

The United States Express company has leased the Wm Scott building next to Taylor and Scott's office, and expect to move their headquarters to that place as soon as it is put into shape for occupancy. The room now occupied by the express company will be taken by Gey Guts who will fix it up for an ice cream parlor.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Steve Reulack of the town of Seneca and Miss Verna Kiedroska of this city.

August Boras and Miss Bertha Neuhauer of both the city of Marshall.

School Officers Elected.

At a meeting of the school commissioners held on Saturday evening the following officers were elected: Dr. Frank Pommerville, president. H H Reeves, Treasurer. W H Youker, Superintendent.

Realty Items!

60 acre farm, 60 acre farm and 200 acre farm for exchange for city property. All good farms at more than 4 miles from town.

300 acres cut over and 600 acres from Grand Rapids over 1000 worth standing timber. Small house. Price $3000. A bargain. Write your friends if you are in the market.

$500 cash is enough to buy a new six room house on west side as owner will allow you time on other $500. Or your $500 will entirely pay for a new small house on east side. Will it pay you to keep on renting?

We have listed some more good houses this week. See what we have before buying. You can buy just as cheap as us as the owners direct. We may have just what you want.

Express Office Will Move

The United States Express company has leased the Wm Scott building next to Taylor and Scott's office, and expect to move their headquarters to that place as soon as it is put into shape for occupancy. The room now occupied by the express company will be taken by Gey Guts who will fix it up for an ice cream parlor.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Steve Reulack of the town of Seneca and Miss Verna Kiedroska of this city.

August Boras and Miss Bertha Neuhauer of both the city of Marshall.

School Officers Elected.

At a meeting of the school commissioners held on Saturday evening the following officers were elected: Dr. Frank Pommerville, president. H H Reeves, Treasurer. W H Youker, Superintendent.

Express Office Will Move

The United States Express company has leased the Wm Scott building next to Taylor and Scott's office, and expect to move their headquarters to that place as soon as it is put into shape for occupancy. The room now occupied by the express company will be taken by Gey Guts who will fix it up for an ice cream parlor.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Steve Reulack of the town of Seneca and Miss Verna Kiedroska of this city.

August Boras and Miss Bertha Neuhauer of both the city of Marshall.

School Officers Elected.

At a meeting of the school commissioners held on Saturday evening the following officers were elected: Dr. Frank Pommerville, president. H H Reeves, Treasurer. W H Youker, Superintendent.

Realty Items!

60 acre farm, 60 acre farm and 200 acre farm for exchange for city property. All good farms at more than 4 miles from town.

300 acres cut over and 600 acres from Grand Rapids over 1000 worth standing timber. Small house. Price $3000. A bargain. Write your friends if you are in the market.

$500 cash is enough to buy a new six room house on west side as owner will allow you time on other $500. Or your $500 will entirely pay for a new small house on east side. Will it pay you to keep on renting?

We have listed some more good houses this week. See what we have before buying. You can buy just as cheap as us as the owners direct. We may have just what you want.

Express Office Will Move

The United States Express company has leased the Wm Scott building next to Taylor and Scott's office, and expect to move their headquarters to that place as soon as it is put into shape for occupancy. The room now occupied by the express company will be taken by Gey Guts who will fix it up for an ice cream parlor.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Steve Reulack of the town of Seneca and Miss Verna Kiedroska of this city.

August Boras and Miss Bertha Neuhauer of both the city of Marshall.

School Officers Elected.

At a meeting of the school commissioners held on Saturday evening the following officers were elected: Dr. Frank Pommerville, president. H H Reeves, Treasurer. W H Youker, Superintendent.

BRAVE DEEDS THAT HAVE WON CARNEGIE MEDALS

New York.—Two years ago Andrew Carnegie conceived the novel idea of discovering and rewarding true heroism wherever it may occur. For this purpose a hero fund commission was appointed whose preliminary labors have now been completed. Deeds of daring, whether by land or sea, in the effort to save life, have received recognition in this way, while the task of the commission has resulted, besides, in bringing together a series of little tales of human pluck, endurance and self-sacrifice, the reading of which is bound to give an uplifting sense of some of the noblest qualities of men and women who brought face to face with the peril that, at some supreme moment, threatens the lives of their fellow beings.

Of the 63 cases of heroism which the commission, after prolonged and careful investigation, has deemed worthy of public recognition, the following have been selected on account of the novel human characters which they tell of the courage and humanity of men, women, and even children, in all walks of life, and in every section of the United States. Not every hero thus chronicled has succeeded in the rescue that he has planned, yet his numbers have lost their own lives in the effort to save the lives of others. It forms a striking record altogether unique among human annals, and may be taken as a true and loving tribute to the self-sacrificing love of man for man.

Maude Titus

In Casco Bay, near Yarmouth, Me., in the summer of 1901, a deed of heroism was performed by a girl of 16, Maude Titus, a student at the Newark (N. J.) high school, was out on a pleasure trip in a sailing yacht with some of her friends. An accident occurred in changing the course of the yacht, and the captain, Miss Titus, and her friend, Miss McFadyen, were thrown into the water. The captain rescued his niece by a lifeline which had been thrown to him from the boat, and he himself then followed her in safety, leaving Miss Titus and Miss McFadyen to struggle for themselves in the waves. Miss Titus was a poor swimmer, and her friend was utterly helpless in the water. Instead of striking out for the boat, however, which she could have reached with ease, Miss Titus remained with the half-drowning girl. She did not attempt to swim with her, but took hold of her, calmed her, and endeavored to hold her head above water until a boat was sent to her rescue. For this act of heroism Miss

JOHN HEALY
SAVED A LIFE
BY HOLDING THE HEAD ABOVE WATER UNTIL A BOAT WAS SENT TO HER RESCUE.

Titus has received a silver medal. The commission has also given $100 to assist in continuing her education. Dr. Titus, the girl's father, having recently died.

Richard Hughes

"A Dynamite Hero" is the name that has been given to Richard Hughes, of Bangor, Pa., by his comrades. An explosion of giant powder blinded Richard Owens just as he lighted the fuse to set off another blast. Unable to find his way out, danger and with his clothing on fire, instant death seemed certain for the unfortunate man. Just as soon as the spark from the second fuse would reach the powder he would be blown side, making cabin and everything like a regular ship, and with some of the timber saved from our vessel we rigged her as a bark, bent sails, and also put on a rudder, wheel, slight and everything, even going so far as to paint her and to name her the Holly.

"She was a fine craft, and floated like a duck when finally launched. We spent Christmas on board of her and had a great time. I loaded part of the wrecked Holly's cargo in her and we then started for Collier, which was our destination. The ice ship sailed fine, and was as good a sea boat as any in which I sailed.

"He is an able chap, this man, and prosperous; he can do things, and still with him, as it is with so many of us, it isn't so much what he does that counts, as it is the way he does it. People cotton to him and like to deal with him, and he's getting on."

"Why, the way we do it can make dull things gay, turn a trolley car into an automobile and make a scanty or homely board hospitable and pleasant. I have eaten dinners of these plest foods that were more delightful than those of the grandest, because of the finer grace with which the simpler offering was pervaded.

"We are so apt to go wrong about that, for instance, to think that we can't compete with people of a thousand times more means, and so not try. What's the use of us? We can't do anything with what we've got, why should we try to do anything?"

"A worse mistake it would be impossible to make. Let us not think of ourselves, or of our hospitality. True, a mackerel is not a shark, nor is stone china fine porcelain; but is that any reason why we shouldn't make the best of what we have and put a smiling face on it?"

"And our way in truth be the more enjoyable entertainment. A generous welcome will make mackerel salmon and turn stone china into ware of Sèvres, and the sea and fever of guests. One need not have tapestried walls if his heart is full bright.

"Let us all take heart! In whatever way we do it is not what we do but the way we do it that counts!"

When little girls cry for dolls; when big boys for dollars.

It isn't what we do, but the way we do it that counts.

With Illustrations by Mr. Muffey.

"A wise man has said that it isn't what we do that counts, but the way we do it, and how true that is," said Mr. Muffey, "and in how many ways!"

"I heard a man saying only yesterday of another that we both know that this man didn't go around knocking everything, but was always cheerful, and I couldn't help thinking how true that was of him, and of how it helped him, and how it helped everybody around him."

"He is an able chap, this man, and prosperous; he can do things, and still with him, as it is with so many of us, it isn't so much what he does that counts, as it is the way he does it. People cotton to him and like to deal with him, and he's getting on."

"Why, the way we do it can make dull things gay, turn a trolley car into an automobile and make a scanty or homely board hospitable and pleasant. I have eaten dinners of these

plest foods that were more delightful than those of the grandest, because of the finer grace with which the simpler offering was pervaded.

"We are so apt to go wrong about that, for instance, to think that we can't compete with people of a thousand times more means, and so not try. What's the use of us? We can't do anything with what we've got, why should we try to do anything?"

"A worse mistake it would be impossible to make. Let us not think of ourselves, or of our hospitality. True, a mackerel is not a shark, nor is stone china fine porcelain; but is that any reason why we shouldn't make the best of what we have and put a smiling face on it?"

"And our way in truth be the more enjoyable entertainment. A generous welcome will make mackerel salmon and turn stone china into ware of Sèvres, and the sea and fever of guests. One need not have tapestried walls if his heart is full bright.

"Let us all take heart! In whatever way we do it is not what we do but the way we do it that counts!"

When little girls cry for dolls; when big boys for dollars.

It isn't what we do, but the way we do it that counts.

With Illustrations by Mr. Muffey.

"A wise man has said that it isn't what we do that counts, but the way we do it, and how true that is," said Mr. Muffey, "and in how many ways!"

"I heard a man saying only yesterday of another that we both know that this man didn't go around knocking everything, but was always cheerful, and I couldn't help thinking how true that was of him, and of how it helped him, and how it helped everybody around him."

"He is an able chap, this man, and prosperous; he can do things, and still with him, as it is with so many of us, it isn't so much what he does that counts, as it is the way he does it. People cotton to him and like to deal with him, and he's getting on."

"Why, the way we do it can make dull things gay, turn a trolley car into an automobile and make a scanty or homely board hospitable and pleasant. I have eaten dinners of these

plest foods that were more delightful than those of the grandest, because of the finer grace with which the simpler offering was pervaded.

"We are so apt to go wrong about that, for instance, to think that we can't compete with people of a thousand times more means, and so not try. What's the use of us? We can't do anything with what we've got, why should we try to do anything?"

"A worse mistake it would be impossible to make. Let us not think of ourselves, or of our hospitality. True, a mackerel is not a shark, nor is stone china fine porcelain; but is that any reason why we shouldn't make the best of what we have and put a smiling face on it?"

"And our way in truth be the more enjoyable entertainment. A generous welcome will make mackerel salmon and turn stone china into ware of Sèvres, and the sea and fever of guests. One need not have tapestried walls if his heart is full bright.

"Let us all take heart! In whatever way we do it is not what we do but the way we do it that counts!"

When little girls cry for dolls; when big boys for dollars.

It isn't what we do, but the way we do it that counts.

With Illustrations by Mr. Muffey.

"A wise man has said that it isn't what we do that counts, but the way we do it, and how true that is," said Mr. Muffey, "and in how many ways!"

"I heard a man saying only yesterday of another that we both know that this man didn't go around knocking everything, but was always cheerful, and I couldn't help thinking how true that was of him, and of how it helped him, and how it helped everybody around him."

"He is an able chap, this man, and prosperous; he can do things, and still with him, as it is with so many of us, it isn't so much what he does that counts, as it is the way he does it. People cotton to him and like to deal with him, and he's getting on."

"Why, the way we do it can make dull things gay, turn a trolley car into an automobile and make a scanty or homely board hospitable and pleasant. I have eaten dinners of these

plest foods that were more delightful than those of the grandest, because of the finer grace with which the simpler offering was pervaded.

"We are so apt to go wrong about that, for instance, to think that we can't compete with people of a thousand times more means, and so not try. What's the use of us? We can't do anything with what we've got, why should we try to do anything?"

"A worse mistake it would be impossible to make. Let us not think of ourselves, or of our hospitality. True, a mackerel is not a shark, nor is stone china fine porcelain; but is that any reason why we shouldn't make the best of what we have and put a smiling face on it?"

"And our way in truth be the more enjoyable entertainment. A generous welcome will make mackerel salmon and turn stone china into ware of Sèvres, and the sea and fever of guests. One need not have tapestried walls if his heart is full bright.

"Let us all take heart! In whatever way we do it is not what we do but the way we do it that counts!"

When little girls cry for dolls; when big boys for dollars.

It isn't what we do, but the way we do it that counts.

With Illustrations by Mr. Muffey.

"A wise man has said that it isn't what we do that counts, but the way we do it, and how true that is," said Mr. Muffey, "and in how many ways!"

"I heard a man saying only yesterday of another that we both know that this man didn't go around knocking everything, but was always cheerful, and I couldn't help thinking how true that was of him, and of how it helped him, and how it helped everybody around him."

"He is an able chap, this man, and prosperous; he can do things, and still with him, as it is with so many of us, it isn't so much what he does that counts, as it is the way he does it. People cotton to him and like to deal with him, and he's getting on."

"Why, the way we do it can make dull things gay, turn a trolley car into an automobile and make a scanty or homely board hospitable and pleasant. I have eaten dinners of these

plest foods that were more delightful than those of the grandest, because of the finer grace with which the simpler offering was pervaded.

"We are so apt to go wrong about that, for instance, to think that we can't compete with people of a thousand times more means, and so not try. What's the use of us? We can't do anything with what we've got, why should we try to do anything?"

"A worse mistake it would be impossible to make. Let us not think of ourselves, or of our hospitality. True, a mackerel is not a shark, nor is stone china fine porcelain; but is that any reason why we shouldn't make the best of what we have and put a smiling face on it?"

"And our way in truth be the more enjoyable entertainment. A generous welcome will make mackerel salmon and turn stone china into ware of Sèvres, and the sea and fever of guests. One need not have tapestried walls if his heart is full bright.

"Let us all take heart! In whatever way we do it is not what we do but the way we do it that counts!"

When little girls cry for dolls; when big boys for dollars.

It isn't what we do, but the way we do it that counts.

With Illustrations by Mr. Muffey.

"A wise man has said that it isn't what we do that counts, but the way we do it, and how true that is," said Mr. Muffey, "and in how many ways!"

"I heard a man saying only yesterday of another that we both know that this man didn't go around knocking everything, but was always cheerful, and I couldn't help thinking how true that was of him, and of how it helped him, and how it helped everybody around him."

"He is an able chap, this man, and prosperous; he can do things, and still with him, as it is with so many of us, it isn't so much what he does that counts, as it is the way he does it. People cotton to him and like to deal with him, and he's getting on."

"Why, the way we do it can make dull things gay, turn a trolley car into an automobile and make a scanty or homely board hospitable and pleasant. I have eaten dinners of these

plest foods that were more delightful than those of the grandest, because of the finer grace with which the simpler offering was pervaded.

"We are so apt to go wrong about that, for instance, to think that we can't compete with people of a thousand times more means, and so not try. What's the use of us? We can't do anything with what we've got, why should we try to do anything?"

"A worse mistake it would be impossible to make. Let us not think of ourselves, or of our hospitality. True, a mackerel is not a shark, nor is stone china fine porcelain; but is that any reason why we shouldn't make the best of what we have and put a smiling face on it?"

"And our way in truth be the more enjoyable entertainment. A generous welcome will make mackerel salmon and turn stone china into ware of Sèvres, and the sea and fever of guests. One need not have tapestried walls if his heart is full bright.

"Let us all take heart! In whatever way we do it is not what we do but the way we do it that counts!"

When little girls cry for dolls; when big boys for dollars.

It isn't what we do, but the way we do it that counts.

With Illustrations by Mr. Muffey.

"A wise man has said that it isn't what we do that counts, but the way we do it, and how true that is," said Mr. Muffey, "and in how many ways!"

"I heard a man saying only yesterday of another that we both know that this man didn't go around knocking everything, but was always cheerful, and I couldn't help thinking how true that was of him, and of how it helped him, and how it helped everybody around him."

"He is an able chap, this man, and prosperous; he can do things, and still with him, as it is with so many of us, it isn't so much what he does that counts, as it is the way he does it. People cotton to him and like to deal with him, and he's getting on."

"Why, the way we do it can make dull things gay, turn a trolley car into an automobile and make a scanty or homely board hospitable and pleasant. I have eaten dinners of these

plest foods that were more delightful than those of the grandest, because of the finer grace with which the simpler offering was pervaded.

"We are so apt to go wrong about that, for instance, to think that we can't compete with people of a thousand times more means, and so not try. What's the use of us? We can't do anything with what we've got, why should we try to do anything?"

"A worse mistake it would be impossible to make. Let us not think of ourselves, or of our hospitality. True, a mackerel is not a shark, nor is stone china fine porcelain; but is that any reason why we shouldn't make the best of what we have and put a smiling face on it?"

"And our way in truth be the more enjoyable entertainment. A generous welcome will make mackerel salmon and turn stone china into ware of Sèvres, and the sea and fever of guests. One need not have tapestried walls if his heart is full bright.

"Let us all take heart! In whatever way we do it is not what we do but the way we do it that counts!"

When little girls cry for dolls; when big boys for dollars.

It isn't what we do, but the way we do it that counts.

With Illustrations by Mr. Muffey.

"A wise man has said that it isn't what we do that counts, but the way we do it, and how true that is," said Mr. Muffey, "and in how many ways!"

"I heard a man saying only yesterday of another that we both know that this man didn't go around knocking everything, but was always cheerful, and I couldn't help thinking how true that was of him, and of how it helped him, and how it helped everybody around him."

"He is an able chap, this man, and prosperous; he can do things, and still with him, as it is with so many of us, it isn't so much what he does that counts, as it is the way he does it. People cotton to him and like to deal with him, and he's getting on."

"Why, the way we do it can make dull things gay, turn a trolley car into an automobile and make a scanty or homely board hospitable and pleasant. I have eaten dinners of these

plest foods that were more delightful than those of the grandest, because of the finer grace with which the simpler offering was pervaded.

"We are so apt to go wrong about that, for instance, to think that we can't compete with people of a thousand times more means, and so not try. What's the use of us? We can't do anything with what we've got, why should we try to do anything?"

"A worse mistake it would be impossible to make. Let us not think of ourselves, or of our hospitality. True, a mackerel is not a shark, nor is stone china fine porcelain; but is that any reason why we shouldn't make the best of what we have and put a smiling face on it?"

"And our way in truth be the more enjoyable entertainment. A generous welcome will make mackerel salmon and turn stone china into ware of Sèvres, and the sea and fever of guests. One need not have tapestried walls if his heart is full bright.

"Let us all take heart! In whatever way we do it is not what we do but the way we do it that counts!"

When little girls cry for dolls; when big boys for dollars.

It isn't what we do, but the way we do it that counts.

With Illustrations by Mr. Muffey.

"A wise man has said that it isn't what we do that counts, but the way we do it, and how true that is," said Mr. Muffey, "and in how many ways!"

"I heard a man saying only yesterday of another that we both know that this man didn't go around knocking everything, but was always cheerful, and I couldn't help thinking how true that was of him, and of how it helped him, and how it helped everybody around him."

"He is an able chap, this man, and prosperous; he can do things, and still with him, as it is with so many of us, it isn't so much what he does that counts, as it is the way he does it. People cotton to him and like to deal with him, and he's getting on."

"Why, the way we do it can make dull things gay, turn a trolley car into an automobile and make a scanty or homely board hospitable and pleasant. I have eaten dinners of these

plest foods that were more delightful than those of the grandest, because of the finer grace with which the simpler offering was pervaded.

"We are so apt to go wrong about that, for instance, to think that we can't compete with people of a thousand times more means, and so not try. What's the use of us? We can't do anything with what we've got, why should we try to do anything?"

"A worse mistake it would be impossible to make. Let us not think of ourselves, or of our hospitality. True, a mackerel is not a shark, nor is stone china fine porcelain; but is that any reason why we shouldn't make the best of what we have and put a smiling face on it?"

"And our way in truth be the more enjoyable entertainment. A generous welcome will make mackerel salmon and turn stone china into ware of Sèvres, and the sea and fever of guests. One need not have tapestried walls if his heart is full bright.

"Let us all take heart! In whatever way we do it is not what we do but the way we do it that counts!"

When little girls cry for dolls; when big boys for dollars.

It isn't what we do, but the way we do it that counts.

With Illustrations by Mr. Muffey.

"A wise man has said that it isn't what we do that counts, but the way we do it, and how true that is," said Mr. Muffey, "and in how many ways!"

"I heard a man saying only yesterday of another that we both know that this man didn't go around knocking everything, but was always cheerful, and I couldn't help thinking how true that was of him, and of how it helped him, and how it helped everybody around him."

"He is an able chap, this man, and prosperous; he can do things, and still with him, as it is with so many of us, it isn't so much what he does that counts, as it is the way he does it. People cotton to him and like to deal with him, and he's getting on."

"Why, the way we do it can make dull things gay, turn a trolley car into an automobile and make a scanty or homely board hospitable and pleasant. I have eaten dinners of these

plest foods that were more delightful than those of the grandest, because of the finer grace with which the simpler offering was pervaded.

"We are so apt to go wrong about that, for instance, to think that we can't compete with people of a thousand times more means, and so not try. What's the use of us? We can't do anything with what we've got, why should we try to do anything?"

"A worse mistake it would be impossible to make. Let us not think of ourselves, or of our hospitality. True, a mackerel is not a shark, nor is stone china fine porcelain; but is that any reason why we shouldn't make the best of what we have and put a smiling face on it?"

"And our way in truth be the more enjoyable entertainment. A generous welcome will make mackerel salmon and turn stone china into ware of Sèvres, and the sea and fever of guests. One need not have tapestried walls if his heart is full bright.

"Let us all take heart! In whatever way we do it is not what we do but the way we do it that counts!"

When little girls cry for dolls; when big boys for dollars.

It isn't what we do, but the way we do it that counts.

With Illustrations by Mr. Muffey.

"A wise man has said that it isn't what we do that counts, but the way we do it, and how true that is," said Mr. Muffey, "and in how many ways!"

"I heard a man saying only yesterday of another that we both know that this man didn't go around knocking everything, but was always cheerful, and I couldn't help thinking how true that was of him, and of how it helped him, and how it helped everybody around him."

"He is an able chap, this man, and prosperous; he can do things, and still with him, as it is with so many of us, it isn't so much what he does that counts, as it is the way he does it. People cotton to him and like to deal with him, and he's getting on."

"Why, the way we do it can make dull things gay, turn a trolley car into an automobile and make a scanty or homely board hospitable and pleasant. I have eaten dinners of these

plest foods that were more delightful than those of the grandest, because of the finer grace with which the simpler offering was pervaded.

"We are so apt to go wrong about that, for instance, to think that we can't compete with people of a thousand times more means, and so not try. What's the use of us? We can't do anything with what we've got, why should we try to do anything?"

"A worse mistake it would be impossible to make. Let us not think of ourselves, or of our hospitality. True, a mackerel is not a shark, nor is stone china fine porcelain; but is that any reason why we shouldn't make the best of what we have and put a smiling face on it?"

"And our way in truth be the more enjoyable entertainment. A generous welcome will make mackerel salmon and turn stone china into ware of Sèvres, and the sea and fever of guests. One need not have tapestried walls if his heart is full bright.

"Let us all take heart! In whatever way we do it is not what we do but the way we do it that counts!"

When little girls cry for dolls; when big boys for dollars.

It isn't what we do, but the way we do it that counts.

With Illustrations by Mr. Muffey.

"A wise man has said that it isn't what we do that counts, but the way we do it, and how true that is," said Mr. Muffey, "and in how many ways!"

"I heard a man saying only yesterday of another that we both know that this man didn't go around knocking everything, but was always cheerful, and I couldn't help thinking how true that was of him, and of how it helped him, and how it helped everybody around him."

"He is an able chap, this man, and prosperous; he can do things, and still with him, as it is with so many of us, it isn't so much what he does that counts, as it is the way he does it. People cotton to him and like to deal with him, and he's getting on."

"Why, the way we do it can make dull things gay, turn a trolley car into an automobile and make a scanty or homely board hospitable and pleasant. I have eaten dinners of these

plest foods that were more delightful than those of the grandest, because of the finer grace with which the simpler offering was pervaded.

"We are so apt to go wrong about that, for instance, to think that we can't compete with people of a thousand times more means, and so not try. What's the use of us? We can't do anything with what we've got, why should we try to do anything?"

"A worse mistake it would be impossible to make. Let us not think of ourselves, or of our hospitality. True, a mackerel is not a shark, nor is stone china fine porcelain; but is that any reason why we shouldn't make the best of what we have and put a smiling face on it?"

"And our way in truth be the more enjoyable entertainment. A generous welcome will make mackerel salmon and turn stone china into ware of Sèvres, and the sea and fever of guests. One need not have tapestried walls if his heart is full bright.

"Let us all take heart! In whatever way we do it is not what we do but the way we do it that counts!"

When little girls cry for dolls; when big boys for dollars.

It isn't what we do, but the way we do it that counts.

With Illustrations by Mr. Muffey.

"A wise man has said that it isn't what we do that counts, but the way we do it, and how true that is," said Mr. Muffey, "and in how many ways!"

"I heard a man saying only yesterday of another that we both know that this man didn't go around knocking everything, but was always cheerful, and I couldn't help thinking how true that was of him, and of how it helped him, and how it helped everybody around him."

"He is an able chap, this man, and prosperous; he can do things, and still with him, as it is with so many of us, it isn't so much what he does that counts, as it is the way he does it. People cotton to him and like to deal with him, and he's getting on."

"Why, the way we do it can make dull things gay, turn a trolley car into an automobile and make a scanty or homely board hospitable and pleasant. I have eaten dinners of these

plest foods that were more delightful than those of the grandest, because of the finer grace with which the simpler offering was pervaded.

"We are

